

Garrison Charges 2d Person in Kennedy Assassination

New Orleans—(AP)—District Attorney Jim Garrison late yesterday charged Edgar Eugene Bradley, 49, of North Hollywood, Calif., with conspiring to murder President John F. Kennedy.

Bradley, on learning of the charge, said of Garrison: "This man is either being highly paid to do this or he's off his rocker."

He denied any part in the shooting of Mr. Kennedy, who was assassinated in Dallas on Nov. 22, 1963.

Bradley is a West Coast representative of the Rev. Carl McIntire, of Collingswood, N. J., a right-wing radio broadcaster and president of the International Council of Christian Churches—a group he formed in 1941 in opposition to the larger National Council of Churches.

Astounded, He Says

The Rev. Mr. McIntire, told of the charge, said he was astounded and added:

"I'm sure that nobody that has any connection with our movement would have anything to do with something like this."

Bradley was the second man formally charged by Garrison with conspiracy to murder Mr. Kennedy. A similar charge was filed by Garrison March 1 against Clay L. Shaw, 54, a wealthy retired New Orleans business man. Shaw awaits trial.

Edgar Eugene Bradley

Garrison, reached yesterday at a Los Angeles hotel where he registered under an assumed name, declined comment.

Lone Sniper

He has been pursuing his controversial Kennedy assassination probe for about a year, accusing the Federal Government of mishandling its investigation

The official Warren Commission report said Mr. Kennedy was killed by a lone sniper, Lee Harvey Oswald, formerly of New Orleans. It said no credible evidence was found that anyone else was involved.

Garrison contends there was a conspiracy involving several men sponsored by extreme right-wing political forces.

Bradley said last night that Mr. McIntire "has been described as a right wing broadcaster."

"But I'm neither a right-wing extremist or a left-wing extremist," Bradley added. "I don't belong to a thing and I don't know anything about Garrison or the Kennedy affair."

Garrison gave no background on Bradley when he filed a bill of information through his office in New Orleans making the charge. However, a photograph of Bradley was given out with the announcement.

Recent Photo

"It looks like a rather recent photo of me but I don't know where they got it," said Bradley when he saw a transmitted print.

In Louisiana, a bill of information is a method of filing a charge which does not involve indictments by a grand jury.

The Bradley charge said that he "did willfully and unlawfully conspire with others to murder John F. Kennedy."

"Like Clay Shaw, Mr. Bradley's name did not come up in the federal 'investigation' of the assassination nor is his name mentioned anywhere in the 26 volumes of the Warren Report 'inquiry' into the case," the Garrison announcement said.
